

Come to the PEOPLE'S ECONOMIC SUMMIT NYC • MAY 31

Share information and insight on how the economic crisis is affecting poor and working people in the U.S. and around the world.
Help formulate a vision for a future free of social and economic inequality and injustice.
 Help plan the fight to make that vision a reality.

High on the Summit's Agenda:
 Planning for the G20 summit meeting in NYC in September, and forming the structures to make organizing for the G20 inclusive and effective.
 NYC meetings every Wed. at 6:30...

PROPOSED AGENDA

11a.m. – 1p.m. 47th St. & 1st Ave.
Special focus panels & breakouts, including:

Defending Immigrant/Worker Rights

Why do migrants leave their homelands? What is behind the anti-immigrant climate? How can we build a workers rights movement that includes legalization, EFCA, etc.? This and more will be discussed in a panel by members of May 1st Coalition, Bayan-USA, La Peña del Bronx, Pakistan-USA Freedom Forum, Million Worker March and others.

Building a Struggle of Youth & Students

Hear youth from member organizations—Anakbayan, FIRE, Malcolm X Grassroots Movement, FIST along with students from Hunter College and BMCC— join forces to deliver a perspective on combatting not only the crisis of the capitalist system, but also the struggles against national, women and LGBT oppressions; imperialism, etc.

Communities of Faith for Peace with Justice

As people of faith and conscience, we will discuss the failed economic system and its impact on our poor and oppressed communities, and how we can change it by denouncing the social sins of male supremacy, heterosexism/homophobia, classism, racism, ethnocentrism, and xenophobia (to just mention a few). Participation of San Romero Church and others.
